

EDUCATION

Massachusetts Institute of Technology Masters of Engineering in Logistics, Supply Chain Management Program GMAT: 750	Cambridge, MA 2014-2015
National Institute of Industrial Engineering (NITIE) Post Graduate Diploma in Industrial Management CGPA: 8.63/10 (Cumulative) – Ranked 11 th in a class of 201 students	Mumbai, India 2009-2011
University of Mumbai Bachelors of Engineering (Electronics and Telecommunications) 81.71% (Distinction with Honors) – Ranked 2 nd in a class of 70 students Granted French Embassy Scholarship for post-graduate studies on photonics research in France	Mumbai, India 2005-2009

EXPERIENCE

UNILEVER

Global Planning Manager – Home Care (Detergents), India, UK, South Africa Led capacity and supply network planning for new product introduction and product reformulations, sustainability and capability projects for the second largest category in Unilever – Home Care ($10.7bn) <ul style="list-style-type: none">Led the supply network planning, capital expenditure and project management for the re-launch of the brands Surf and Radiant resulting in incremental turnover of $20M in 2013 across 10 countriesDeveloped the Unilever manufacturing and supplier network for the first water saving laundry powder with a potential to save 350 billion gallons of water per annum. Team awarded Laundry Compass Award, a highly selective award given by the CEO, for sustainability.Implemented capex savings of $40M by changing process sequence in detergent manufacturing facilities across the world. Led a cross-functional team of 12 to conduct a pilot in South AfricaDeveloped supply chain entry strategies for white spaces in Africa and Middle East. Led project management resulting in quick set up of multiple low cost plants and developed new local suppliers in the region with materials buying team.	May '12 – Jun '14
Senior Analyst, Supply Chain Strategies, Canada Worked in an internal consulting team making recommendations to the CEO for optimization of the end to end value chain of the $177 M Ice cream business for Unilever Canada <ul style="list-style-type: none">Generated savings ideas of $14M by reducing brand changeovers on production line by 30%Developed an optimized production scheduling and inventory strategy to reduce the total finished goods inventory from 32 days of stock in hand to 28 daysProject initiatives rated as one of the best continuous improvement project in 2012, having generated the ice cream business 2000 bps gross margin improvement	Jan '12 – Apr '12
Management Trainee, India Selected for the prestigious Unilever Future Leaders Program . Worked cross-functionally across teams like Demand and Supply planning, warehousing and customer service. <ul style="list-style-type: none">Generated a strategy for supply network optimization of the Shampoos category in India to deliver savings of $2.4MImproved customer invoice accuracies from 80% to 96% by simplifying the Unilever-Customer IT interface	Jan '11- Dec '11

NESTLE (Summer Intern) <ul style="list-style-type: none">Developed a strategy to increase customer fill rate from 85% to 98% while reducing the inventory by 3 days for Infant Nutrition, Confectioneries and Noodles category in India	Apr '09- Jun '09
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------

ACHIEVEMENTS & INTERESTS

- Strong Academic Record: Ranked 10th amongst 250,000 students in Maharashtra State Merit List in Grade 10
- Leadership Abilities: Chief Coordinator of Annual Business Conclave at NITIE with participation from 7 CEOs of Fortune 500 companies, over 100 senior corporate members and 1000 student participants
- Volunteered with National Rural Health Mission, Developed an open source carbon footprint calculator for National Carbon Research and Education Foundation (NCREF)
- Proficient in Indian classical music, 1st prize in debating at Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore