

Robert J. Walker

42 Meadowbrook Lane – Stafford, VA – 22554 – (540) 848-4149

SUMMARY

Mr. Walker has software design and development experience in support of the Department of Defense (DoD). Using Java and C++ languages, he performed development of unit test procedure and simulations of a tactical training system for the United States Navy. He also has 5 years of experience in the entrepreneurial online space, having developed or worked for 5 revenue-driven web-based companies, the most successful of which currently hails over 110,000 unique viewers per month. His experience includes web development in HTML, CSS and Wordpress, marketing for ecommerce and management of multiple employees. He is currently an Industrial & Systems Engineering student at the University of San Diego.

EDUCATION

University of San Diego

San Diego, California

- Expected BS & BA in Industrial and Systems Engineering (2018)
- 3.81 Cumulative GPA/ Dean's List First Honors
- USD Scholarship awarded for excellence in academics and service
- Applicable courses include: Computer Programming, Applied Mathematics for Engineers, Public Speaking, Engineering Probability and Statistics, Work Analysis & Design, Operations Research and Engineering Economics

EXPERIENCE

ThinkEatLift

San Diego, California

Marketing Manager and Equity Owner

February 2016-present

- Run daily marketing sales tactics, managing over 110,000 unique monthly users.
- Maintain website and software development, working in HTML, CSS, and Wordpress.
- Manage social media accounts with over 110,000 subscribers across 3 platforms.

SimVentions

Fredericksburg, Virginia

Electronic Warfare Software Engineering Intern

Summer 2016

- Developed simulations for US Navy under a Secret Security clearance.
- Performed unit test procedures as quality assurance of deliverables.
- Programmed in Java and C++ in Windows and Linux OS.

Technical Marketing Agency

San Diego, California

Co-founder and Owner

Summer 2015-present

- Design and create both personal and business-oriented websites on a client by client basis.
- Lead two employees in development instruction and general management.

The Better Foundation

Los Angeles, California

Research Writer

Summer 2015

- Wrote daily research-based articles on assigned topics pertaining to testosterone-related topics.
- Perform various office-related tasks for the president of the company.