

AISHA NABIYEVA

70 Pacific Street, Cambridge, MA 02139 • +1 617 945 6909 • aishanab@mit.edu

- Languages: English, Russian, Kazakh

EDUCATION

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge MA, USA

MEng in Supply Chain Management, Expected 2017

University of Cambridge, Cambridge, UK

MPhil Industrial Systems, Manufacture and Management, 2013

Honors: Master thesis on Global Manufacturing Footprint Strategy sponsored by Caterpillar

Activities: Visited 40 companies across a wide spectrum of industries in the UK and Turkey

King's College London, London, UK

BSc Mathematics with Management and Finance, 2011

Honors: First Class Honors (Top 10%)

Awards: First Bachelor student to be awarded dissertation on Masters level (Distinction)

EXPERIENCE

Rolls Royce – Aerospace and Marine

Derby, UK

Deputy Supply Chain Projects Manager – HQ Strategy

May 2015 – Jun 2016

- Delivered a $260 million cost reduction in a $2 billion procurement deal (part of team of 12) in company wide logistics transformation program
- Led a cross-functional team with representatives from purchasing, finance, quality, tax and export control for both defense and civil aerospace
- Developed SAP requirements in order to assess and select IT providers
- Collaborated with PWC consultants to develop program plan and implementation strategy

Rolls Royce – Civil and Defense Aerospace, Marine

Derby, UK

Supply Chain and Operations Management Graduate Program

Sep 2013 – May 2015

- Supply Chain Designer: mapped future state global locations of warehouses and transport links
- Master Scheduler: created a database that identified the key operational constraints of part types
- Inventory Forecaster: redesigned supply chain of A380 engine, generating savings of $11 million
- Material Resource Planner: led a Lean Six Sigma process improvement project which reduced production lead-time and led to a 50% arrears reduction for the part

University of Cambridge

UK (Various cities)

Consultancy Industrial Placements

Oct 2012 – Mar 2013

- Consulted industrial companies in the UK on manufacturing processes improvements, market expansion strategy and opening manufacturing facilities in other countries
- The companies included packaging manufacturer Rexam, broadcasting equipment maker Courtyard Electronics, automotive solutions provider Autoneum and photochemical technology provider Photofabrication

Shift Learning Research

London, UK

Contract Researcher

Jun 2010 – Feb 2012

- Conducted primary research for European Society of Cardiology service development

SKILL AND ACTIVITIES

IT Skills: SAP, SQL, Tableau, Python, Minitab, Excel, JMP, Project, LaTeX

Extracurricular: STEM Ambassador for UK, Finance Director of KCL Business Club which is the largest London student enterprise with 2500 members

Awards: Platoon Commander in charge of 30 cadets in Kazakh Math and Physics School

Interests: Guitar, singing, camping and organizing entertainment for children